

Level Forty-Six

anniversary owe bruise chisel cruise	appetite axle calamity code cubic	astronomy barbeque canopy competition defend	attachment bribery carcass compute definite	avid brooch charity corporation distress
distribute elusive eventually giggle humanity	disturb emotion flavour gorge humour	divorce emperor forbid groove ignition	dumb estimate forfeit hamster impatient	echo eternity fret humane impulse incline lizard mercury oblong outrage	infinity lobster miracle ode package	insult lottery miser ointment paving	irony lounge muscle omen percentage	liable mattress mushroom opt perish
pillar plunder preparation reaction republic	planet pollinate primitive reception robot	pleat precious punctuation recruit rodent	pliers prefect punish reluctant rotary	plight prefix pylon remedy sanctuary
scruffy stern symmetry tolerate	sheriff submerge symptom transaction	siren succession tenant transparent	sleeve suspicion testimony virtue	statistics symbol thermometer warrior

ACTIVITIES

1. Pretest these words with a partner. Make sure you know how to spell all of them. Put any that you are having difficulty with into your spelling notebook, and go over them with a friend, and with someone at home.
2. Find ten of these words in the dictionary. Give the word before, and the word after your word. Give also the guide words on the page.
3. Put the following words in a sentence. Use your thesaurus to find a word that is a synonym, and that will make sense in the sentence you have written. Write that sentence too, underlining the new synonym: avid, plight, lounge, ointment, tenant, warrior, fret, echo, awe, pleat, miracle, rodent, infinity.
4. Some words in the same word family can be nouns and verbs. RUN can be "to run" (verb) or "a run" (noun). You can make a noun from some verbs: SEIZE (verb) becomes SEIZURE (noun). Make nouns from the following: recruit, punish, chisel, definite, compute, tolerate.
5. Words that look the same, but have more than one meaning are called homonyms. BOX can mean a cube to put things in, or to spar in a boxing ring. Give two meanings for each of these homonyms: code, cruise, flavour, recruit, mercury, stern, fret, insult.

Level Forty-Seven

acrobatic architect calculate collision considerable	aerial artificial calculator comedian contribute	amateur assistance calorie commission convert	apparent automatic cardinal compile corridor	appliance cafeteria collapse comrade crater democratic donation eventuality fluent geometry	descent duplicate exclude fraction grief	description eliminate execution French gristle	dispel emphasis explode frequent halo	dominate enrolled fibre fugitive heirloom hilarious indulge label medal naked	hysterical interior lash merchant navel	ideal interpret lease mislead ordeal	idiot investigate lump mock organic	India jubilation luxury mutton oriental parchment poach quiz renovate sauce	participate pollute quoit request sequel	perpetual prey quotation residence serrated	pilgrim priest rebellion resolve slaughter	plural quay reinforce restaurant souvenir stimulate suction tribunal warranty	strategy sympathy tuition weird	style syndicate utensil witness	subdue treason vapour zigzag	submission tremendous vicinity zodiac

ACTIVITIES

1. Pretest these words with a partner. Make sure you know how to spell all of them. Put any that you are having difficulty with into your spelling notebook, and go over them with a friend, and with someone at home.
2. Find ten of these words in the dictionary. Give the word before, and the word after your word. Give also the guide words on the page.
3. Put the following words in a sentence. Use your thesaurus to find a word that is a synonym, and that will make sense in the sentence you have written. Write that sentence too, underlining the new synonym: explode, reinforce, slaughter, oriental, enrolled, comrade, comedian, fraction, ideal, fluent.
4. Some words in the same word family can be nouns and verbs. RUN can be "to run" (verb) or "a run" (noun). You can make a noun from some verbs: SEIZE (verb) becomes SEIZURE (noun). Make nouns from the following: contribute, reinforce, renovate, exclude, stimulate, dominate, calculate.
5. Words that look the same, but have more than one meaning are called homonyms. BOX can mean a cube to put things in, or to spar in a boxing ring. Give two meanings for each of these homonyms: prey, convert, cardinal, fibre, submission.

Level Forty-Eight

abolition analysis applause autograph catapult	abundant ancestor application barnacle catastrophe	affluent anthology aristocrat binoculars cheat	alternative antique astonish brood chivalry	aluminium apparatus atmosphere brutal circulation
classification confidential crucify demonstration dissent	cobble confirmation culprit derivation ecology	comparable consonant cyclone desolate entertainment	complex continuation deliberate disagreeable exceptionally	concentrate conviction delinquent disposition excursion exponent humorous Indian international maximum	garbage illiterate Ingredient isolation medieval	gorgeous illuminate initiation juvenile merchandise	heifer imitate insulate knead merit	herbivore Incredible intellectual lubricate moderation
nevertheless overture pedigree pohutukawa pronunciation	occupation parallel perceive polygon prophecy	occurrence partition perfection preservative proportion	octagon passive permanent procedure readjust	opportunities pedestrian phase professional realistic remembrance sorcerer taut vague	remittance sovereign terminate variation	sanitary sphere transformation venom	schedule suede vaccination vermin	significant synonym vaccine vibration

ACTIVITIES

1. Pretest these words with a partner. Make sure you know how to spell all of them. Put any that you are having difficulty with into your spelling notebook, and go over them with a friend, and with someone at home.
2. Find these words in the dictionary. Give the word before, and the word after your word. Give also the guidewords on the page.
3. Make a mini-dictionary using these words. Remember to include:
  - alphabetical order
  - meanings
  - other words in the family
  - illustrations if that will help explain your meaning.

Level Forty-Nine

abbreviation administration announcement aptitude barometer	abduct affirmative antiseptic ascend brewery	accidentally aghast apostrophe aspirin budge	acknowledge amnesty appreciation asthma campaign	adhere amphibian approximate avalanche catalyst changeable column continually crucial diabetes	characteristic conqueror contradict deluge discipline	circumference consequence controversial depressed discretion	circumstances constitution convoy destitute discus	collaborate contempt counterfeit detergent dismiss dynamite eminent fatigue hypnosis legion	efficiency enthusiastic fluorescent impartial legislation	efficient epidemic greenstone independence memorial	elaborate exhaustion handkerchief industrious meridian	emigrate extraordinary homonym intelligence microphone millionaire mortgage parliament persevere premier	mimic mortuary pasture plague pretext	miniature nickel perennial plaque profusion	mobility oblige perimeter polytechnic proficient	monopoly optician persecute preference prologue
pyjamas security syllable vacuum	reckon somersault tabulate verify	recreation specification temptation vocation	relic speculate translation waiver	repulsive stagnant turpentine xylophone

ACTIVITIES

1. Pretest these words with a partner. Make sure you know how to spell all of them. Put any that you are having difficulty with into your spelling notebook, and go over them with a friend, and with someone at home.
2. Find these words in the dictionary.

Level Fifty

abundance acquainted alcohol antonym ascended	accommodation acquainted alcohol antonym ascended	accompanied acquiesce amenity apologise ascertain	accompaniment adequate amputation appendicitis atrocious	accumulate adolescent anaesthetic appropriate attorney
aubergine bureau celsius cicada coincidence	bankruptcy bureaucracy champagne cigarette colleague	beneficiary byte chauffeur cistern communicate	bibliography cambridge chlorine civilisation compensation	bogus camouflage chrysanthemum co-operation component comprehensive contagious corpuscles diarrhoea embryo	condemn contaminate cosmos diplomate encyclopaedia	confectionery contemplate croissant dissatisfied exaggerate	congratulations convenient delirious eczema excavate	conscience corduroy deterioration ellipse exquisite extravagant guillotine humiliation inoculate liaison	feign Hamilton hydro-electric integer malnutrition	fermentation harmonious hygiene irritant meagre	galvanised Hauraki hypnotise kauri mediterranean	grotesque hexagonal inconvenience khaki microbe
miscellaneous narcotics obscene pessimist pneumonia	mischievous Ngaruahoe opaque phenomenon preliminary	misunderstanding Ngaruawahia ozone phlegm Presbyterian	mnemonic noticeable Palmertson phobia psychology	mountainous nutritious panadeine plymouth puberty
publication refrigerator Ruapehu Tauranga Waiheke	quarantine Remuera scavenger Tongariro Waikato	questionnaire retaliate silhouette traumatic Waiouru	racism rheumatism suave unanimous Whangarei	Rangitoto Rotorua Taranaki variegated zucchini

ACTIVITIES

1. Pretest these words with a partner. Make sure you know how to spell all of them. Put any that you are having difficulty with into your spelling notebook, and go over them with a friend, and with someone at home.
2. Find these words in the dictionary. Give the word before, and the word after your word. Give also the guidewords on the page.
3. Make a mini-dictionary using these words. Remember to include:
  - alphabetical order
  - meanings
  - other words in the family
  - illustrations if that will help explain your meaning